A UNIQUE MISSION

A PROUD HISTORY

The Army National Guard is the oldest U.S. Armed Forces component, more than 100 years older than the Army. Embodying over 375 years of traditions and values, the Army National Guard has played an integral role in our nation's history and development. In the early 1600's, fellow citizens banded together in Salem, Massachusetts, to defend against attacks, forming a

The Army National Guard strives to assist its Soldiers in living up to their fullest potential by providing education programs and advanced training.

militia that became known as the National Guard. The Citizen-Soldier's role was further defined in 1903, when national legislation recognized the National Guard as a reserve force for the U.S. Army. The Army National Guard's presence from the Revolutionary War to current conflicts further establishes our position as a vital military component.

CITIZEN - SOLDIERS

The Army National Guard is for students, people with part-time and full-time jobs, those with or without prior military service experience, or any other citizen who has a desire to serve their country and learn skills to further themselves as leaders within their community.

ARMY NATIONAL GUARD ANSWERS THE CALL

The incredible versatility of the Army National Guard enables its troops to respond to domestic emergencies, combat mission, counter drug efforts, reconstruction missions and more – all with equal speed, strength and efficiency.

Whether the call is coming from the state Governor or directly from the President of the United States, Army National Guard Soldiers are always ready and always there.

SERVING YOUR COMMUNITY, STATE & COUNTRY

As an Army National Guard Soldier, you can expect your primary area of operation to be your home state, following the leadership of your state Adjutant General and governor.

This may include community efforts, such as responding to wildfires and floods, or it may include missions such as training foreign forces.

You will also be prepared to mobilize when directed by the President of the United States; this may include service overseas or domestically, for missions such as serving along the U.S.-Mexico border.

So, what does the Army National Guard do? Whatever is needed, wherever it is needed.
